

OUTREACH TEMPLATE

A cold DM that books calls.

Breakdown of every line.

What doesn't work

'Hey, I noticed your website could use some work...'

Your prospect has read that exact line 40 times this month.

The 3-part DM structure

1. Specific observation
2. One idea
3. No ask

Part 1: Specific observation

NOT: 'Your funnel has room to improve.'

YES: 'Your hook on the Q4 launch ad opens with a question, and the version running 3 months ago opened with a claim. The claim version lasted 6 weeks, the question version is already fading.'

Part 2: One idea

NOT: 'I can do a bunch of things.'

YES: 'I'd test a claim-led rewrite on the top-spending ad for 48 hours. Hypothesis: your audience is 2nd-level aware, not 1st.'

Part 3: No ask

NOT: 'Let's jump on a call.'

YES: 'That's the idea. Reply if it lands.'

The DM's job is to prove you can think, not to close.

Why 'no ask' works

If the idea is good, they'll ask you.

If it isn't, asking for a call doesn't save it.

Expected response rate

Sent well: 15–25% reply rate.

Of those, 40–50% become a paid conversation within 2 exchanges.

What kills it

- Flattery ('love your content!')
- Vague ideas ('I can help')
- A services page link
- Any rate mentioned in message 1

Send 10 this week.
